

Copyright Transfer Agreement

Name of publication: Journal of Electrochemical Science and Technology

Manuscript title: _____

Contributor name(s): _____

The contributor, with the consent of all co-authors, hereby transfers the copyright ownership in the referenced submitted work (subsequently referred to as the work) to the Korean Electrochemical Society (KECS). If the work is accepted for publication by KECS, it is subject to the following. If the work is not accepted or withdrawn, this transfer will be null and void.

1. The contributor retains the right to revise, adapt, prepare derivative works, present orally, or distribute the work, provided that all such use is for the personal noncommercial benefit of the contributor and is consistent with any prior contractual agreement between the contributor and his/her employer.

2. In all instances where the work is prepared as a work made for hire for an employer, the employer whose authorized agent signs below retains the right to revise, adapt, prepare derivative works, publish, reprint, reproduce, and distribute the work, provided that all such use is for the promotion of its business enterprise and does not imply the endorsement of the Korean Electrochemical Society.

3. Whenever the Korean Electrochemical Society is approached by third parties for individual permission to use, reprint, or republish specified articles (except for classroom use or reprint in a collective work), a permission from the Korean Electrochemical Society will be required.

4. No proprietary right other than copyright is claimed by the Korean Electrochemical Society.

This agreement must be signed by the contributor who has the consent of all authors or, in the case of a work made for hire, an authorized agent of the employer.
